TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR THE PROVISION OF SERVICES RESERVED FOR JUVENTUS OFFICIAL FAN CLUB MEMBERS

1. In the Terms and Conditions that follow 'Juventus' refers to Juventus Football Club S.p.A., with registered headquarters in Via Druento 175 - Turin, VAT number 00470470014, and 'Juventus Official Fan Club Member' refers to those who have joined a Juventus Official Fan Club which is part of the project, have bought their Juventus Official Fan Club card from their Official Fan Club and for whom their Official Fan Club has paid their subscription fee.
2. The Juventus Official Fan Club Member can use the following services:
 - Juventus Official Fan Club membership card;
 - a 10% discount at all Juventus Stores on presentation of the Juventus Official Fan Club card¹;
 - a 10% discount valid for up to three uses until 30 June 2020 on <https://store.juventus.com/>²;
 - a 10% discount on services at J-Medical (please find a list of services on www.jmedical.eu; discounts may not be combined with other offers);
 - special rates for visits to Allianz Stadium, Juventus Museum & City Tour;
 - possibility to purchase official Juventus Official Fan Club merchandise;
 - possibility to purchase a Juventus Card (formerly Supporters' Card) from their specific Juventus Official Fan Club;
 - ticketing services through their specific Juventus Official Fan Club;
 - members who own season tickets can resell their seat for a specific game in the My Season Ticket section through their specific Juventus Official Fan Club;
 - members who own season tickets also have the option to register four reserves - rather than three - in the My Season Ticket section;
 - option to apply for and be invited to special events;

Any changes of the services on offer, such as access to advance bookings, special offers and/or additional services that may be supplied by the Juventus Official Fan Club or third parties/Juventus partners with whom Juventus may establish agreements (Companies under Agreement) shall be communicated to the Juventus Official Fan Club Member via the website www.juventus.com in the Juventus Official Fan Club section and/or through the member's Juventus Official Fan Club and/or through the email address provided by the member, and shall be understood as accepted both then and now.

3. Signing up to the Juventus Official Fan Club project can be done by filling in information on this form. Each enrollment can only be approved by Juventus Official Fan Clubs that are part of the project and have been awarded the status of Juventus Official Fan Club. If, during the validity period of the services offered, the Official Fan Club from which the member bought his Juventus Official Fan Club card should lose its status as a Juventus Official Fan Club and the contract signed between this Juventus Official Fan Club and Juventus be terminated, Juventus will duly inform the member by email. In this case, the Juventus Official Fan Club Member may ask – within the terms and in the ways that will be communicated – to join another Official Fan Club so that they may continue to use the services provided by Juventus through the Juventus Official Fan Clubs.
4. To ensure the services function correctly, all personal information must be accurate and truthful. The data shall be processed according to the methods set out in the Information Sheet attached.
5. Members must be in possession of a Juventus Card (formerly Supporters' Card) in order to use the ticketing services through their Juventus Official Fan Club. Members understand that:

¹ With the exception of certain specific articles and categories of article which Juventus reserves the right to from time to time explicitly exclude from discounts or promotional campaigns

² With the exception of certain specific articles and categories of article which Juventus reserves the right to from time to time explicitly exclude from discounts or promotional campaigns i

- Juventus Official Fan Club members are not automatically entitled to be allocated a ticket every time they request one through their Juventus Official Fan Club;
 - no name changes are possible for tickets purchased from the Juventus Official Fan Club as part of this agreement.
6. The Juventus Official Fan Club membership card is the only document that authorises the above-mentioned rights. The membership card is strictly personal and cannot be used by third parties, each Juventus Official Fan Club Member being the sole owner of the membership card assigned to them. Any abuse and/or fraudulent use of the membership card shall lead to the immediate suspension and/or interruption of services.
 7. Subscription to Juventus Official Fan Club is valid for one football season. No type of service relating to the JOFC project shall be supplied for the Juventus Official Fan Club Member after the end of this period, except to inform them about renewing the subscription through channels that Juventus shall set up and communicate to Juventus Official Fan Clubs.
 8. The Juventus Official Fan Club member's right to use services is personal and non-transferable. Without prejudice to the provisions of Article 3 in the case of a member's Juventus Official Fan Club being excluded from the Juventus Official Fan Club project, it is strictly prohibited for a member to join more than one Juventus Official Fan Club during the course of the football season; if this should happen, services will be withdrawn.
 9. The Juventus Official Fan Club Member shall undertake to use the services exclusively for legitimate aims that are permitted by the relevant legal provisions, accepted practices, rules of diligence, and in any case without harming the rights of any third party. Apart from for the provision of services included in the Juventus Official Fan Club package, Juventus shall have nothing to do with the relationship between Juventus Official Fan Club members and their Juventus Official Fan Club, and is in no way responsible for their actions.
 10. The Juventus Official Fan Club Member acknowledges that they use the services at their own exclusive risk. The services are laid on "as they are" and "as available". Juventus does not offer any guarantee that the services shall correspond to the Juventus Official Fan Club Member's requirements.
 11. The Juventus Official Fan Club Member accepts the incontestable right of Juventus to exclude individuals from Juventus Official Fan Club or not issue Juventus Official Fan Club membership cards to individuals:
 - who in Juventus' opinion, or following a report a Juventus Official Fan Club, police authorities or third parties, have behaved in a way that does not conform to the rules of the "Code of Conduct for the Sale of Tickets", adopted in accordance with provisions from the National Observatory on Sporting Events, also with regard to Juventus away games;
 - who are responsible for violations of the rules for using sports facilities;
 - against whom legal proceedings have been brought under Article 6 of Law 13 from December 1989, No. 401 or under Law 27 from 1956, No. 1423; i.e. a charge or conviction, even if not yet final, for crimes committed during or as a result of sports events.
 12. In the event that the Juventus Official Fan Club membership card is not issued due to one of the above reasons, Juventus' sole obligation shall be to inform the Juventus Official Fan Club Member or their Juventus Official Fan Club that the card will not be issued or will be cancelled. No specific additional explanations shall be forthcoming, nor will the card holder be entitled to receive compensation or reimbursement.
 13. Juventus may also suspend or interrupt – either partially or fully – the provision of services to Juventus Official Fan Club Members at any time, in the following scenarios:
 - where a Juventus Official Fan Club Member fails to provide up-to-date, complete and truthful personal data;
 - where a Juventus Official Fan Club Member uses the services for illegal ends or in a manner that is illicit;
 - where Juventus finds evidence that a Juventus Official Fan Club Member has exhibited behaviour that may lead to their active participation in episodes of violence or may endanger public safety at or as a result of sporting events;

- where a Juventus Official Fan Club membership card has been used by more than one person or where this has been attempted to obtain discounts and promotions;
- in the case of a violation of the terms and conditions of use for season tickets and/or the conditions of sale for matchday tickets.

14. Pursuant to Article 47, Paragraph 2 of the Consumer Code (Legislative Decree 206/2005 as amended by Legislative Decree 21/2014), Articles 48 and 68 of the Consumer Code do not apply to this contract; there is therefore no right of withdrawal in accordance with Article 52 of the Consumer Code since it is a contract negotiated outside of business premises on the basis of which the consumer does not have to pay Juventus Official Fan Club more than €50.

15. These terms and conditions are governed by Italian law. Any disputes relating to the validity, application, interpretation, execution and resolution of these terms and conditions will be directed to the Turin Chamber of Commerce and resolved according to its Rules of Conciliation. Should the parties decide to take the matter before ordinary judicial authorities, the sole competent court is that of Turin, or that of the client's place of residence or chosen domicile, where he/she qualifies as a consumer in accordance with Legislative Decree 206/2005.

I, the undersigned

INFORMATION ON HOW PERSONAL DATA IS PROCESSED

in compliance with EU Regulation 2016/679 ("GDPR") and national laws in force regarding the protection of personal data

The law currently in force ensures that the handling of personal data falls within the law, fundamental freedoms, and dignity of individuals, with particular reference to privacy, personal identity, and the right to protect personal data and ensure that said data be treated in a lawful and correct way.

In light of these criteria, we inform you, as an interested party, of the following:

1. Data Controller

The Data Controller is Juventus F.C S.p.A., with registered headquarters in Via Druento 175 – 10151 Turin, VAT number 00470470014, which processes your data for compliance linked to the Juventus Official Fan Club project.

2. The individual responsible for data protection

The person in charge of protecting personal data (known as the data protection officer – DPO) is provisioned in Article 37 in EU Regulation 2016/679. It involves an individual appointed by the Data Controller or the Data Processor. The role of the DPO entails:

- supporting, coordinating and collaborating with the organisation on the management of data protection
- monitoring the compliance of applicable legal requirements and the Data Controller's policies, while evaluating the risks of each process, considering the nature, scope of application, context and purpose.
- cooperating with the Guarantor and being the point of contact, while respecting the interested parties regarding matters linked to the processing of personal data
- providing, if requested, an opinion on the valuation of the impact on data protection.

Juventus has appointed lawyer Simone Bongiovanni – Studio Legale Bongiovanni – as the DPO, who can be reached by email on: privacy@juventus.com.

3. Type of data processed

Standard personal data: the data provided to join the project (name, surname, country and date of birth, email and phone number), which is required to verify the person's identity and to buy tickets and/or memberships and those needed to issue a Supporters' Card/fidelity card (copy of ID card), or information on purchased Juventus products/services (season ticket, membership, fan card, fidelity card).

Data related to measures: for the purposes of joining the JOFC project and accessing the related services, just like the purchase of tickets to the stadium and/or the issuing of the Supporters' Card/fidelity card, it can also be processed as data related to the criminal or administrative measures involved in bans from access to stadia, if communicated to Juventus by the relevant authorities. In such fields, data related to those who violate the Code of Regulations for tickets is also released.

4. Data sources

Standard personal data is collected by the interested party (and therefore directly provided by it) through the filling out of the form to join the Juventus Official Fan Club project, through the Juventus Official Fan Club, as well as the field of services and products annexed to the Juventus Official Fan Club project provided by Juventus.

The data related to measures can be communicated to Juventus by the authorities in charge of the law in force, for the purposes of prevention and repressing violent incidents connected to footballing competitions.

5. Purpose of processing personal data, legal basis, nature of their provision and storage period

Purpose	Legal basis	Nature of provision	Storage period
To enact the interested party's request to join the JOFC project and provide the related services: The data shared is used to issue the Juventus Official Fan Club card and to guarantee the correct provision of services provided by Juventus as part of the Juventus Official Fan Club project, to send notifications related to services and keep the member informed in relation to initiatives concerning the Juventus Official Fan Club project (also by telephone, where provided), to organise activities and manage participation in events organised as part of the JOFC project. The data may also be used to purchase tickets to access the stadium and the Supporters' Card / Juventus Card. In particular, the identification document may be requested to avoid potential fraud and to fulfil legal obligations for purchasing tickets and the Supporters' Card. Shared data and that relevant to legal proceedings can also be processed so that services offered to the JOFC Member can be suspended or denied.	Execution of a contract or pre-contractual measures (Article 6.1.b GDPR) Legitimate interests (Article 6.1.f GDPR) Compliance with a legal obligation to which the Controller is subject (Article 6.1.c GDPR)	The provision of data is mandatory. Profiled marketing: For elaborating the interested party's commercial profile (recording their consumption habits), aimed at sending information and / or advertising material of specific interest, through automated systems, such as e-mail, fax, SMS or MMS.	Consent of the data subject (Article 6.1.a GDPR)	The provision of data is optional and the failure to do so will not entail any consequence except being unable to be included in profiling analysis and receive promotions, discounts and targeted communications, based on the data provided.	The data is kept for the time necessary depending on the purpose or until the communication is no longer of interest to the recipient. To this end, without prejudice to the right to revoke consent at any time, the data is deleted within 36 months of the interested party's interactions with the Controller coming to an end, without prejudice to the data relating to the purchase details being kept for a period not exceeding 24 months from collection thereof.
Soft spamming: Limited to the e-mail data provided by the interested party when purchasing a service, the data provided may be used to allow Juventus to offer similar products or services directly, without prejudice to the right of the interested party to oppose such processing at any time and without formalities, by indicating their wish in a suitable and clear manner.	Legitimate interests of the holder (Article 6.1.a GDPR)	The provision of data is mandatory and necessary to send communications about similar products or services. However, if opposition to such processing is expressed, that limitation will not impact the services in any way, except that it will become impossible to receive information and communications on similar products.	The data is deleted within the 36 months following the date of purchase, without prejudice to the data subject's right to object to data processing for this purpose. A request to limit this processing should be made by contacting the Controller directly upon receipt of such emails, by clicking on the unsubscribe link at the bottom of the message or through the contact service on the Website: https://www.juventus.com/it/contact.php, or by writing to: privacy@juventus.com.

Dissemination of data related to participation in events as part of the JOFC project: Any data provided and the images and / or personal experiences shared in the context of participating in events and / or contributing to dedicated publications as part of the JOFC project can be disseminated, following the issuing of specific disclaimers / guarantees, by publication on internet sites including social networks, on printed media and / or other means of dissemination.	Consent of the data subject (Article 6.1.a GDPR)	The provision of data is optional and the failure to do so will not entail any consequence except being unable to participate in relevant events and / or contribute to dedicated publications and, in such contexts, sharing personal images and / or experiences.	Until consent is revoked.

6. The privacy of minors

In the case of minors under 16 in accordance with the relevant legislation regarding the protection of personal data and processing of personal data on a basis of consent, which must be provided by the adult with parental responsibility for the minor (from now on referred to as 'parent'). The parent has the right to inspect and request deletion of the minor's personal data.

7. Methods for processing data

The processing of data will be done by electronic and/or online means based on the type and with the ideal instruments to guarantee safety and privacy of the data, in accordance with the relevant legal requirements. In particular, adequate technical, computerised, organisational, logical, and procedural security measures will be taken, so that the safety of the data can be guaranteed, ensuring that only persons authorised as holder of the account, or authorised by the holder, may access the account.

8. Persons who have access to the data

For the purposes indicated above, data collected can be made accessible to or communicated to:

- Employees or collaborators with Juventus's company functions who are appointed to achieve the targets previously mentioned in their role as authorised agents for processing ("processors") in the field of the respective tasks and in accordance with the instructions received. Such individuals are still subjected to confidentiality and privacy obligations.
- Third parties that perform outsourced activities on behalf of Juventus and are trusted by Juventus to perform certain activities or part of them, with the activity connected, instrumental or of support to the activity of Juventus, which will process the data on behalf of Juventus (for example, hosting firms, project managers, programmers, system and database administrators, individuals who carry out ticketing services, customer care activities, technical, individuals who perform technical or organisational roles, such as offering printing services, mail services, transmission, transport and the handling of communication, consultancy firms). Such parties will be designated as Data Processors. The full list of parties considered responsible is available upon request to the holder (Juventus) by writing to the club or sending an email: privacy@juventus.com.
- All parties (including public authorities) that have access to personal data in accordance with legal and administrative procedures.
- All public and/or private subjects, physical and/or legal people that work as Autonomous Data Controllers (legal, administrative and tax consultancy work, judicial offices, chambers of commerce, work chambers and offices, approved firms within the field of the JOFC project for the purposes of accessing services from them, etc) in case communication becomes necessary or functional for the correct fulfilment of the contractual obligations taken on, as well as those derived from law.

The circulation of data is excluded, with the exception of audio and video recordings taken inside the stadium and/or in the case of events relating to the Juventus Official Fan Club project, in which the individual may take part, which may be transmitted and circulated via any channel of communication by the club, in the presentation of the sporting event to the public, and in providing services in any capacity connected to said event, as well as informative and promotional material on work done by Juventus and, in particular, by the Juventus Official Fan Club project.

9. The transfer of data

The management and storing of personal data occur on servers located within the European Union. It is possible that Juventus memorises personal data on a cloud, which means that data could be processed by cloud service providers on behalf of Juventus. In any case, the cloud service provider will be asked to memorise the data on servers located in the European Union.

Some Data Processors as chosen by the club could use regulated firms in Italy or abroad (EU and non-EU countries) that are linked to the processing of personal data. When personal data is processed by a manager of a firm within the management group or other subcontractors, outside the European economic space, or in a country that does not guarantee an adequate level of protection of data as recognised by the European Commission, the transfer of data abroad will be subject to specific guarantees of personal data protection through the adoption of ad hoc contractual clauses.

10. The rights of the individual concerned

The individual concerned is entitled to specific rights, including that of requesting the confirmation of whether or not their personal data is being held, even if not yet registered, requesting the clear and intelligible communication of this data, of where it came from, as well as the method and purposes of the use of said data. The individual may also request the deletion, limitation of use, anonymisation, or for the data to be blocked if the data is so used in violation of the law, as well as also updating, correcting, or if so desired, the transfer of the data and the portability of the data to another Controller (the right to receive data in a structured format, of common and legible use on an automatic data device and transmit said data to another holder)³. The individual also has the right to refuse, in part or entirely, for legitimate reasons, that their personal data be processed, be it relevant to the purposes of the collection of data, or not. The individual may also make a claim to the Guarantor for the protection of their personal data within the boundaries and guidelines as set out in current legislation. To exercise the rights laid out above, the individual must present a request to the Data Controller Juventus, by using the following contact addresses: Juventus FC S.p.A., Via Druento 175, 10151 Turin, Province of Turin, email: privacy@juventus.com. The individual may also at any time, provided they are registered on the website juventus.com, by using their account to navigate to the 'My Profile' page on the website, update their data records and contact details, as well as make changes to the level of consent they have given with regard to their data, or use the contact section of the site <https://www.juventus.com/it/contact.php> to present their request.

³ These rights are laid out and defined and governed by art. 15-22 of the Regulation. The deletion of data regards data used in violation of the law, or in the case of consent having been revoked, and when the use is not based on other legal requirements. The individual may always oppose the use of the data for the purposes of commercial advertising, direct sales or market research; in other cases, the individual may not oppose the use of data when in conflict with the legitimate and prevailing interests of the holder or any legal dispute, with the right to defend themselves in court.
